

The tree below represents a quadtree subdivision of a square. The left most branch is the upper left quarter, the next branch is the upper right, the third branch is the lower right, and the right most branch is the lower left of a region. The leaf nodes are labeled A-J.

Subdivide the square below to indicate the subdivision of the quad tree. Label each portion of the square with the appropriate label from the tree.

